

THE HERALD.

JOHN P. BARRETT, EDITOR

WEDNESDAY, NOV. 5, 1884.

Louisville, Nov. 5.
Cleveland and Hendricks are elected certain New York, New Jersey, Connecticut, Nevada, California, Wisconsin, Indiana, with the balance gone for them.

JNO. P. BARRETT.

GROVER CLEVELAND
OUR NEXT PRESIDENT.

THOS. A. HENDRICKS,
VICE PRESIDENT.

205
Even the Nigger wouldn't hold our Cleveland boss.

Tour your home. We got that.

Our Republican friends look tired.

As indicated in this edition at the head of this column, Cleveland and Hendricks were elected by a majority of the electoral vote. After a reign of four years of constant opposition and suppression by the Republican party, the people have shaken off the shackles that bound them and redeemed the country. Honesty has triumphed. It is impossible for us to give anything like a definite result at this writing, but every dispatch points to the election of Cleveland and Hendricks.

Mr. R. P. Howe, our efficient Post-Master, made a speech upon the political issue of the day to a large audience of ladies and gentlemen, at Morgantown last Saturday. Mr. Howe is a representative Republican and his speech usually comes up to the standard of prominent Republicans orators, but in this instance, we learn that he beat himself and surpassed his usual efforts and fully satisfied those of his political faith.

The HERALD was held back this week so as to be able to give our readers the result of the election.

The Lexington Transcript has arranged for the publication of the Western Association Press dispatches. This is in response to the demand of the people of that section.

Jacon Johnson, for murderer, was tried at Bowling Green, last week, on a charge of venie from the Logan Circuit Court and sentenced one year.

The People have appointed Grosvenor to succeed Judge Hiram, and appointed ex-Senator McCullough to succeed Mr. Grosvenor as Secretary of the Treasury.

Mr. John L. McFarland has withdrawn from the editorial staff of the Cincinnati Inquirer. Mr. McFarland has been on the editorial corps of the Inquirer since its inception.

The Overland Inquirer will be converted into a tri-weekly, beginning Saturday, Nov. 11. It will appear on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays. We wish it success.

The Louisville Messenger and Courier of last week speak in very complimentary terms of the speech delivered by Mr. H. B. Kinsolving before the Cleveland and Hendricks Club in that city, on Tuesday night of that week.

The Supreme Court of Ohio decided the Scott Liquor Law unconstitutional. Judges Olney, Follett and Owens, the three Democratic members casting the decision, and Judges Johnson and McIlvane, two Republicans dissenting.

Col. STURGEON JOHNSON, president of the Kentucky Press Association, has arranged for an excursion to the City of Mexico for the Kentucky visitors on November 15th, going via Adelphi and El Paso, and returning via New Orleans at the opening of the World's Exposition. The excursion will start provided forty editors consent to go and pay up $60 each to defray the expenses of the trip.

At Bowling Green, Goliathina Smith, a colored girl, was struck with paralysis Sunday morning and fell while walking along the street. She was ill, but is yet in a precarious condition. Mrs. Douglas, a popular colored humorist, had a stroke of apoplexy Sunday night at 10 o'clock, and was a corpse within two hours. Bill Briggs, a colored man, dropped dead upon the street last week.

The Louisville Journal says: Dr. Christopher Graham, the centenarian of Louisville, attended the fair at Bowling Green, yesterday, and was an object of great interest. He has just passed his one hundredth birthday anniversary, and looks sensible and well. He was the companion of Judge Johnson, and the two old men enjoyed themselves.

At the Kentucky Fair, a colored woman and her child were seen ripe for a dance and by 9 o'clock the parlors were filled with the elite of Hartford society and many voices rang out upon the walls. "Steal away, my darling, kiss me, kiss me, kiss me." The colored girls kissed the waters in recognition of the occasion and wine.

"Steal away with its voluptuous swell, kiss me, kiss me, kiss me." The negroes, the young and highly enjoyed. The young negroes and their mothers seemed ready for a dance and by 9 o'clock the parlors were filled with the elite of Hartford society and many voices rang out upon the walls. "Steal away, my darling, kiss me, kiss me, kiss me." The colored girls kissed the waters in recognition of the occasion and wine.

At the Kentucky Fair, a colored woman and her child were turned out by the Methodist church for said dancing, but were afterward reinstated. He is still a Methodist and a Democrat. He fought through the wars—that of 1812, Jackson's Indian wars, and the Mexican.

We have received the American Newspaper Annual for 1884, published in Philadelphia, by N. W. Ayer & Son. From a sketch of the work we find it very complete, containing a list of all newspapers and periodicals in the United States and throughout the world. It gives the name of the paper, the language, general characteristics, year of establishment, size, circulation, and advertising rates for ten line issues monthly. In fact it is completed directory or gazetteer of the newspaper world.

Master Commissioners' Notices to Creditors.

OIG CIRCUIT COURT
John Chapman's Adm'r.

John Chapman's Heirs.

All persons having claims against the estate of John Chapman, deceased, are hereby invited to produce the same property, present to the undersigned Master Commissioner of said court, on or before the 15th day of November, 1884, or they will be forever barred.

October 1st, 1884.

O. S. Price, Adm'r.

Letter Phe. And

Letter Phe.

All persons having claims against the estate of John Chapman, deceased, are hereby invited to produce the same property, present to the undersigned Master Commissioner of said court, on or before the 23rd day of November, 1884, or they will be forever barred.

John P. BARRETT,
Master Commissioner.

Shirt Sale For Taxes.

By virtue of taxes due me as Sheriff of this county, for the year 1884, I will

on the 24th day of November, 1884, it being the first day of Circuit Court, offer for sale the following tracts of land to wit:

HARTFORD DISTRICT.
Acre, $100 per acre for De-Bonto 1200 acres $120,000.

Berry, N. L. 1 town lot $8 76.

Fitzgerald, John, 411 news $9 40.

Heath, John, agent for Rachel W. 20 acres $1 95 40.

ROCKVILLE DISTRICT.

Herrell, Spencer, 1883 1 town lot $1 25.

Green & Barren River Navigation Co. 4 acres $1 00.

SUN RESIDENT DIST.

Arcold, Wm 1 town lot $1 85.

Brown, John, 122 news $1 60.

Brown, W. S. 400 news $90 00.

Burke, Sarah A, 20 acres $1 60.

Burnett, H. T. 1 town lot $5 00.

Burnett, H. D. 20 acres $5 00.

Burnett, E. 20 acres $4 30.

Davis, J. H. 2 acres $1 85.

Davis, J. H. 20 acres $1 50.

SCHOOL TEACHERS

Will be glad to learn that Anderson's Bazaar has made arrangements to take Orders at par on the School Commissioner. As this house has but one price, and that marked in plain figures, there is no danger in being overcharged on a single article you buy, because of the character of the pay. Teachers, you are cordially invited to call and examine the stock.

S. W. ANDERSON, Proprietor.

THE HERALD.

WEDNESDAY, NOV. 5, 1884.

OUR AGENTS.

The following persons are authorized to receive subscriptions and to take orders for the Herald in the State of Hawaii, orders for our work, etc., etc.

WILL COOPER, Cromwell.

EDGAR RILEY, Livermore.

DAVID COOPER, Los Angeles.

JOS. T. SMITH, Jr., Louisville.

M. P. BRENNETT, Covington.

H. R. SANDERS, Centerville.

WILLIE MAY, Haynesville.

J. C. COOPER, Los Angeles.

T. G. FLOYD, Whiteside.

V. H. BAIRD, Hosine.

HOM. R. P. HOCKER, Beaver Dam.

W. A. GIBSON, Caryville.

D. H. BEAN, Point Pleasant.

RICH. HADEN & CO., Rockport, Ky.

PERSONALS.

Mr. THOMAS M. HOW, of Louisville, is quite ill at this writing.

We had the pleasure last Monday of a short visit from Dr. M. E. Neal and Miss Anna Neal, of Cincinnati.

Mr. Claude J. Yager, editor and proprietor of the Lexington Standard, was sickly and unable to attend his annual friends here in Money.

Miss Mary Carson, of No Creek, accompanied by her sister-in-law, Mrs. C. N. Carson, of Louisville, Tenn., called to see us last Monday morning.

Mr. H. L. Foster, of Coldsen, Illinois, and Miss Mary Carlson, of Louisville, were here yesterday evening, the former son of their mother, Judge John C. Townsend, of this place. They will remain two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. James Parker, who have been visiting the family of their son, Mr. and Mrs. James Jones, of Louisville, were here Saturday. We had the pleasure of a call from them while here.

Fine military suits at Small's.

Read the poem by R. Campbell this week.

Mr. Caleb Crow has lost a portion of his dwelling recovered with it.

Cates' jeans, none can beat it, for sale by H. B. Taylor & Co.

The young people had singing at the M. E. church last Sunday night.

Buy Cates' jeans, bluey and yarne at H. B. Taylor & Co's.

The Centerville spring sand made music for the hop last Friday night.

Saxony yarne and sephrys all colors at H. B. Taylor & Co's.

Mandy was County Court, but there was not a very large number of people present.

Call at H. B. Taylor & Co's and see these nice yarne all warranted free colors.

The members of the Hartford Quartet band are progressing finely in their rehearsals.

Caps, caps, caps, never was such a lot as H. B. Taylor & Co's. Call and see them.

A $10 Russian Circular for $5 at H. SMALL'S.

Thomas Hockeys has a No. 1 double barrel shot-gun, which they will sell for twelve dollars. Call early and get a bargain.

The horse which took in town for two dollars and a half.

H. B. TAYLOR & CO.

The ladies of Centerville, gave a dinner yesterday and supper last night, at that place, for the benefit of the Methodist church. We tender thanks for an invitation to be present.

"You'll never miss the water till the well runs dry," is a true saying. "Your home will be your home till it burns down;" is a much truer one. They come at once and have your property insured.

John P. BARRETT, Agent.

Mrs. G. T. Oliver is prepared to do all kinds of dress making, also cutting and fitting. Call and see her. Beaver Dam, Ky.

Dr. W. J. Berry, of Beaver Dam, one of our oldest and best physicians, one upon whom the name of Oliver may have been cast many hours in former days, left last Monday for Florida, where he goes to visit relatives, recuperate his health and look at the country. He will be back in time for the holidays, when he will return to Beaver Dam, where he will resume the practice of his profession. He was accompanied by his son-in-law, Mr. Wm. H. Murrell, of Beaver Dam, and an excellent husband and father, who may be seen in the South Sea if he finds a favorable opportunity. We understand that Dr. Berry's wife accompanied them.

442

Call for boots and shoes at Small's.

The Sabbath schools at this place are flourishing.

Ten dollar overcoat for five and six dollars.

Mrs. Amanda Johnson will please accept our sincere thanks for the dainty and highly appreciated remembrance sent us.

Mr. Clarence Hardwick has vacated the residence recently purchased by W. F. Gregory, and himself and family will board at his mother's.

$3 boots, whole stock, at $2.50. Call at H. SMALL'S.

We have decided on Christmas day for our gift distribution. It will probably come off on that day. In the meantime a number of valuable gifts will be added to the list.

The ladies of the Methodist church will give a dinner at the church on the first day of Circuit Court for the benefit of same. Persons expecting to attend a court on that day should make a note of this.

We learn from a private letter that Dr. L. M. Stander, formerly of the First Methodist Church, Youngstown, Ohio, has given up his practice of law and moved to Wilkeson, Green, Monroe, who is engaged in the stock business, at that place, to carry on his trade.

Mr. Claude J. Yager, editor and proprietor of the Lexington Standard, was sickly and unable to attend his annual friends here in Money.

Miss Mary Carson, of No Creek, accompanied by her sister-in-law, Mrs. C. N. Carson, of Louisville, Tenn., called to see us last Monday morning.

Mr. H. L. Foster, of Coldsen, Illinois, and Miss Mary Carlson, of Louisville, were here yesterday evening, the former son of their mother, Judge John C. Townsend, of this place. They will remain two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. James Parker, who have been visiting the family of their son, Mr. and Mrs. James Jones, of Louisville, were here Saturday. We had the pleasure of a call from them while here.

Fine military suits at Small's.

Read the poem by R. Campbell this week.

Mr. Caleb Crow has lost a portion of his dwelling recovered with it.

Cates' jeans, none can beat it, for sale by H. B. Taylor & Co.

The young people had singing at the M. E. church last Sunday night.

Buy Cates' jeans, bluey and yarne at H. B. Taylor & Co's.

The Centerville spring sand made music for the hop last Friday night.

Saxony yarne and sephrys all colors at H. B. Taylor & Co's.

Mandy was County Court, but there was not a very large number of people present.

Call at H. B. Taylor & Co's and see these nice yarne all warranted free colors.

The members of the Hartford Quartet band are progressing finely in their rehearsals.

Caps, caps, caps, never was such a lot as H. B. Taylor & Co's. Call and see them.

A $10 Russian Circular for $5 at H. SMALL'S.

Thomas Hockeys has a No. 1 double barrel shot-gun, which they will sell for twelve dollars. Call early and get a bargain.

The horse which took in town for two dollars and a half.

H. B. TAYLOR & CO.

The ladies of Centerville, gave a dinner yesterday and supper last night, at that place, for the benefit of the Methodist church. We tender thanks for an invitation to be present.

"You'll never miss the water till the well runs dry," is a true saying. "Your home will be your home till it burns down;" is a much truer one. They come at once and have your property insured.

John P. BARRETT, Agent.

W. H. B. HOCKER & CO.

The ladies of the Methodist church will give a dinner at the church on the first day of Circuit Court for the benefit of same. Persons expecting to attend a court on that day should make a note of this.

We learn from a private letter that Dr. L. M. Stander, formerly of the First Methodist Church, Youngstown, Ohio, has given up his practice of law and moved to Wilkeson, Green, Monroe, who is engaged in the stock business, at that place, to carry on his trade.

Mr. Claude J. Yager, editor and proprietor of the Lexington Standard, was sickly and unable to attend his annual friends here in Money.

Miss Mary Carson, of No Creek, accompanied by her sister-in-law, Mrs. C. N. Carson, of Louisville, Tenn., called to see us last Monday morning.

Mr. H. L. Foster, of Coldsen, Illinois, and Miss Mary Carlson, of Louisville, were here yesterday evening, the former son of their mother, Judge John C. Townsend, of this place. They will remain two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. James Parker, who have been visiting the family of their son, Mr. and Mrs. James Jones, of Louisville, were here Saturday. We had the pleasure of a call from them while here.

Fine military suits at Small's.

Read the poem by R. Campbell this week.

Mr. Caleb Crow has lost a portion of his dwelling recovered with it.

Cates' jeans, none can beat it, for sale by H. B. Taylor & Co.

The young people had singing at the M. E. church last Sunday night.

Buy Cates' jeans, bluey and yarne at H. B. Taylor & Co's.

The Centerville spring sand made music for the hop last Friday night.

Saxony yarne and sephrys all colors at H. B. Taylor & Co's.

Mandy was County Court, but there was not a very large number of people present.

Call at H. B. Taylor & Co's and see these nice yarne all warranted free colors.

The members of the Hartford Quartet band are progressing finely in their rehearsals.

Caps, caps, caps, never was such a lot as H. B. Taylor & Co's. Call and see them.

A $10 Russian Circular for $5 at H. SMALL'S.

Thomas Hockeys has a No. 1 double barrel shot-gun, which they will sell for twelve dollars. Call early and get a bargain.

The horse which took in town for two dollars and a half.

H. B. TAYLOR & CO.

The ladies of Centerville, gave a dinner yesterday and supper last night, at that place, for the benefit of the Methodist church. We tender thanks for an invitation to be present.

"You'll never miss the water till the well runs dry," is a true saying. "Your home will be your home till it burns down;" is a much truer one. They come at once and have your property insured.

John P. BARRETT, Agent.

W. H. B. HOCKER & CO.

The ladies of the Methodist church will give a dinner at the church on the first day of Circuit Court for the benefit of same. Persons expecting to attend a court on that day should make a note of this.

We learn from a private letter that Dr. L. M. Stander, formerly of the First Methodist Church, Youngstown, Ohio, has given up his practice of law and moved to Wilkeson, Green, Monroe, who is engaged in the stock business, at that place, to carry on his trade.

Mr. Claude J. Yager, editor and proprietor of the Lexington Standard, was sickly and unable to attend his annual friends here in Money.

Miss Mary Carson, of No Creek, accompanied by her sister-in-law, Mrs. C. N. Carson, of Louisville, Tenn., called to see us last Monday morning.

Mr. H. L. Foster, of Coldsen, Illinois, and Miss Mary Carlson, of Louisville, were here yesterday evening, the former son of their mother, Judge John C. Townsend, of this place. They will remain two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. James Parker, who have been visiting the family of their son, Mr. and Mrs. James Jones, of Louisville, were here Saturday. We had the pleasure of a call from them while here.

Fine military suits at Small's.

Read the poem by R. Campbell this week.

Mr. Caleb Crow has lost a portion of his dwelling recovered with it.

Cates' jeans, none can beat it, for sale by H. B. Taylor & Co.

The young people had singing at the M. E. church last Sunday night.

Buy Cates' jeans, bluey and yarne at H. B. Taylor & Co's.

The Centerville spring sand made music for the hop last Friday night.

Saxony yarne and sephrys all colors at H. B. Taylor & Co's.

Mandy was County Court, but there was not a very large number of people present.

Call at H. B. Taylor & Co's and see these nice yarne all warranted free colors.

The members of the Hartford Quartet band are progressing finely in their rehearsals.

Caps, caps, caps, never was such a lot as H. B. Taylor & Co's. Call and see them.

A $10 Russian Circular for $5 at H. SMALL'S.

Thomas Hockeys has a No. 1 double barrel shot-gun, which they will sell for twelve dollars. Call early and get a bargain.

The horse which took in town for two dollars and a half.

H. B. TAYLOR & CO.

The ladies of the Methodist church will give a dinner at the church on the first day of Circuit Court for the benefit of same. Persons expecting to attend a court on that day should make a note of this.

We learn from a private letter that Dr. L. M. Stander, formerly of the First Methodist Church, Youngstown, Ohio, has given up his practice of law and moved to Wilkeson, Green, Monroe, who is engaged in the stock business, at that place, to carry on his trade.

Mr. Claude J. Yager, editor and proprietor of the Lexington Standard, was sickly and unable to attend his annual friends here in Money.

Miss Mary Carson, of No Creek, accompanied by her sister-in-law, Mrs. C. N. Carson, of Louisville, Tenn., called to see us last Monday morning.

Mr. H. L. Foster, of Coldsen, Illinois, and Miss Mary Carlson, of Louisville, were here yesterday evening, the former son of their mother, Judge John C. Townsend, of this place. They will remain two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. James Parker, who have been visiting the family of their son, Mr. and Mrs. James Jones, of Louisville, were here Saturday. We had the pleasure of a call from them while here.

Fine military suits at Small's.

Read the poem by R. Campbell this week.

Mr. Caleb Crow has lost a portion of his dwelling recovered with it.

Cates' jeans, none can beat it, for sale by H. B. Taylor & Co.

The young people had singing at the M. E. church last Sunday night.

Buy Cates' jeans, bluey and yarne at H. B. Taylor & Co's.

The Centerville spring sand made music for the hop last Friday night.

Saxony yarne and sephrys all colors at H. B. Taylor & Co's.

Mandy was County Court, but there was not a very large number of people present.

Call at H. B. Taylor & Co's and see these nice yarne all warranted free colors.

The members of the Hartford Quartet band are progressing finely in their rehearsals.

Caps, caps, caps, never was such a lot as H. B. Taylor & Co's. Call and see them.

A $10 Russian Circular for $5 at H. SMALL'S.

Thomas Hockeys has a No. 1 double barrel shot-gun, which they will sell for twelve dollars. Call early and get a bargain.

The horse which took in town for two dollars and a half.

H. B. TAYLOR & CO.

The ladies of the Methodist church will give a dinner at the church on the first day of Circuit Court for the benefit of same. Persons expecting to attend a court on that day should make a note of this.

We learn from a private letter that Dr. L. M. Stander, formerly of the First Methodist Church, Youngstown, Ohio, has given up his practice of law and moved to Wilkeson, Green, Monroe, who is engaged in the stock business, at that place, to carry on his trade.

Mr. Claude J. Yager, editor and proprietor of the Lexington Standard, was sickly and unable to attend his annual friends here in Money.

Miss Mary Carson, of No Creek, accompanied by her sister-in-law, Mrs. C. N. Carson, of Louisville, Tenn., called to see us last Monday morning.

Mr. H. L. Foster, of Coldsen, Illinois, and Miss Mary Carlson, of Louisville, were here yesterday evening, the former son of their mother, Judge John C. Townsend, of this place. They will remain two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. James Parker, who have been visiting the family of their son, Mr. and Mrs. James Jones, of Louisville, were here Saturday. We had the pleasure of a call from them while here.

Fine military suits at Small's.

Read the poem by R. Campbell this week.

Mr. Caleb Crow has lost a portion of his dwelling recovered with it.

Cates' jeans, none can beat it, for sale by H. B. Taylor & Co.

The young people had singing at the M. E. church last Sunday night.

Buy Cates' jeans, bluey and yarne at H. B. Taylor & Co's.

The Centerville spring sand made music for the hop last Friday night.

Saxony yarne and sephrys all colors at H. B. Taylor & Co's.

Mandy was County Court, but there was not a very large number of people present.

Call at H. B. Taylor & Co's and see these nice yarne all warranted free colors.

The members of the Hartford Quartet band are progressing finely in their rehearsals.

Caps, caps, caps, never was such a lot as H. B. Taylor & Co's. Call and see them.

A $10 Russian Circular for $5 at H. SMALL'S.

Thomas Hockeys has a No. 1 double barrel shot-gun, which they will sell for twelve dollars. Call early and get a bargain.

The horse which took in town for two dollars and a half.

H. B. TAYLOR & CO.

The ladies of the Methodist church will give a dinner at the church on the first day of Circuit Court for the benefit of same. Persons expecting to attend a court on that day should make a note of this.

We learn from a private letter that Dr. L. M. Stander, formerly of the First Methodist Church, Youngstown, Ohio, has given up his practice of law and moved to Wilkeson, Green, Monroe, who is engaged in the stock business, at that place, to carry on his trade.

Mr. Claude J. Yager, editor and proprietor of the Lexington Standard, was sickly and unable to attend his annual friends here in Money.

Miss Mary Carson, of No Creek, accompanied by her sister-in-law, Mrs. C. N. Carson, of Louisville, Tenn., called to see us last Monday morning.

Mr. H. L. Foster, of Coldsen, Illinois, and Miss Mary Carlson, of Louisville, were here yesterday evening, the former son of their mother, Judge John C. Townsend, of this place. They will remain two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. James Parker, who have been visiting the family of their son, Mr. and Mrs. James Jones, of Louisville, were here Saturday. We had the pleasure of a call from them while here.

Fine military suits at Small's.

Read the poem by R. Campbell this week.

Mr. Caleb Crow has lost a portion of his dwelling recovered with it.

Cates' jeans, none can beat it, for sale by H. B. Taylor & Co.

The young people had singing at the M. E. church last Sunday night.

Buy Cates' jeans, bluey and yarne at H. B. Taylor & Co's.

The Centerville spring sand made music for the hop last Friday night.

Saxony yarne and sephrys all colors at H. B. Taylor & Co's.

Mandy was County Court, but there was not a very large number of people present.

Call at H. B. Taylor & Co's and see these nice yarne all warranted free colors.

The members of the Hartford Quartet band are progressing finely in their rehearsals.

Caps, caps, caps, never was such a lot as H. B. Taylor & Co's. Call and see them.

A $10 Russian Circular for $5 at H. SMALL'S.

Thomas Hockeys has a No. 1 double barrel shot-gun, which they will sell for twelve dollars. Call early and get a bargain.

The horse which took in town for two dollars and a half.

H. B. TAYLOR & CO.

The ladies of the Methodist church will give a dinner at the church on the first day of Circuit Court for the benefit of same. Persons expecting to attend a court on that day should make a note of this.

We learn from a private letter that Dr. L. M. Stander, formerly

